AH11-10 discusses contemporary methods and issues involved in the investigation of ancient history

The Task:

You will have 45 minutes to complete a short answer and extended response in class test without notes. There will be three or four questions in this test. One question will be worth 10 to 15 marks. Questions will require students to analyse and interpret sources and apply their own knowledge.

Students will be given a practice test which they will have time to complete in class in the week leading up to the assessment. To prepare for this task students should ensure they have completed all activities in the Troy booklet and made summary notes of the readings.

This is a compulsory assessment task. You are required to be in class on the above sated date to complete the task. You are to make a genuine attempt at the examination. Failing to do so may result in the awarding of the grade of 0%. If you will be away n the day, you are required to arrange an extension with your class teacher. If you are away from school on the day of the examination due to an unplanned event, you are required to provide your teacher with a note from a parent/Caregiver when you return.
